

Registration Form

Maidstone – Saturday 5th and Sunday 6th March 2011

Hatfield – Saturday 26th and Sunday 27th March 2011

Cost per delegate (non refundable)

	2 day non residential	2 day residential
Parents of children with SEN/ disabilities	£100	£150
Small voluntary groups (less than 5 employees)	£175	£250
Large voluntary groups/other organisations/ professionals	£250	£350

Please contact Val Rosier if this causes difficulty

First Name:	Title:
Surname:
Address:
	Postcode:
Tel.No:	Mobile:
Email:
Organisation:
Special needs or dietary requirements (if any)

Cheque enclosed (please make cheques payable to Network 81)

Please invoice

Network 81 reserves the right to cancel or rearrange courses without liability. In this event you will be offered a new date or full refund.

Please send to: Network 81
1-7 Woodfield Terrace
Stansted, Essex, CM24 8AJ
Helpline: 0845 077 4055 Admin line: 0845 077 4056
Email: val.network81@btconnect.com

Overview of the Existing Educational Law on how schools deal with children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities.

How to apply for EXTRA help!

Do you understand Special Educational Needs and the Law?

Do you know what a statement contains?

Do you know how to request a statement?

Would you know how to appeal the contents of a statement or request another school?

All of this explained and more...

More details overleaf

A

Maidstone
5th and 6th
March 2011

Overview of the

New Equality Act 2010 and existing Exclusion Law
Right to Appeal; Examination and Access Arrangements and new Children, Schools and Families Act 2010

Are you aware of the changes regarding Disability Discrimination in School law which have come with the new Equality Act 2010?

Is your child at risk of Exclusion or has been excluded?

Everything you need to know about the changes regarding Special Educational Needs Appeals; Extra help available for examinations and how to apply: NEW Children, School and Families Act and the changes.

More details overleaf

B

Hatfield
26th and 27th
March 2011

Contact Val Rosier on 0845 077 4056 or Email val.network81@btconnect.com

Additional Information

Weekend A

- Education Law including the SEN & Disability Act 2001
- School Procedures
- Statutory Assessment
- Annual Reviews
- SEN & Disability Tribunal (SENDIST)
- The SEN Code of Practice 2001
- Governors responsibilities
- Statementing procedures
- Equality Act 2010
- Practical Case Studies

Weekend B

- NEW Equality Act 2010
- Exclusions Guidance
- How to prepare the case for Tribunal
- Additional support arrangements for tests & examinations
- NEW CSF Act 2010
- Official Guide to Unofficial exclusions

Who should attend?

- Parents
- Extended Family
- Foster Carers
- Local Authority SEN Officers
- Parent Partnership Officers
- Children's Guardians
- Educational Lawyers
- Headteachers
- SENCOs
- SEN and Disability Charity representatives
- Speech and Language Therapists
- Occupational Therapists
- Physiotherapists
- Educational Psychologists

All Inclusive

All courses include refreshments on arrival, morning and afternoon break and, of course, lunch.

Please note any dietary needs on registration form.

The two-day residential course also includes overnight accommodation, breakfast and an evening meal.

The comprehensive course folder is referred to during the course and is a useful resource to keep.

Full Days

Bespoke training

Courses tailored to your specific requirements, can be arranged as full or half day, twilight or evening sessions.

These can be on Educational and Equality Law or on others educational issues; e.g. ASD, ADHD, SpLD (Dyslexia, Dyspraxia) Bullying, Exam access arrangements (SATs & GCSE) Financial assistance (DLA, Direct Payments).

Check out our training website for more information.

www.sen-training.co.uk

Comments by previous participants

Thoroughly enjoyed the course. Very informative, good mixture of people; professionals and parents.

A brilliant weekend, beneficial in so many ways, not just course content, but meeting and talking to others.

Excellent! Probably the most useful short course I've ever attended

Wonderful, learnt more than expected. Want to learn more. A real confidence booster.

Thank you. Gained a lot of insight which will be beneficial in the future in many ways

Accreditation

All courses are accredited by Open College Networks; Participants can register to accumulate credits towards nationally recognised Awards and Diplomas.

Please contact Val Rosier for further information.